How do I print/download a report?

On the top right side of the report page, there is a toolbar that looks like this:

When clicked, the first icon on the left will download your report to your computer as an csv file.

From there, you can print the file from Excel.